ACCESS SERVICES
Circulation Policies

The mission and goal of Access Services is to provide organized quality resources to students, faculty and staff. These resources are distributed through informational channels, circulation services, reserve and interlibrary materials to the constituents of the college community and City University of New York institutions as a whole.

CRITERIA FOR BORROWING

- ID Validation – must have current semester stamp before library validation occurs:
  - Students: ID validation stickers in library or Colston ID Room or other venue as assigned by Public Safety.
  - Full Time Faculty: Campus ID Room, Colston Hall (name checked against current employment record).
  - Adjunct Faculty: Campus ID Room, Colston Hall (Letter from Human Resources (HR))
  - Library validation – Library Circulation Desk – present current validated ID to be added in ALEPH (library integrated library systems).

WHO MAY BORROW

- Faculty, Staff, Student
  - A current validated, each semester, CUNY I.D. card must be presented to enter the college and borrow library materials.
• Special Programs (non-matriculated students): Privileges at local library ONLY
  - CUNY Start
  - CLIP Program
  - College Discovery Program, etc.
    - If no longer in program and are matriculated as a Bronx Community College student, student must get a regular student identification card (Campus ID room – Colston Hall).
  - NO CLICS
    NO Interlibrary Loans
    NO access to databases off campus

• Retired Faculty, Higher Education Officer Series (HEO, HEA, HEa, aHEO) and College Laboratory Technicians (CLTs)
  - Upon request, issued new identification card with the appropriate stamp; i.e., RETIRED embossed on card.

• Alumni (Home library access ONLY)
  - Upon request, issued new identification card with the appropriate stamp; i.e., ALUMNI embossed on card.
  - DO NOT have the following privileges:
    - Off-campus access to databases
    - CLICS (CUNY Library Intra-Campus Services) – cannot place HOLDS

• SUNY’s Empire State
  Students enrolled in SUNY’s Empire State College (must show Empire State identification card) are granted the same borrowing privileges as CUNY students. They are issued a CUNY Open Access card (Circulation Desk) with a generic barcode and an expiration date at the end of the current semester. Cards and barcodes are located at the circulation desk in Circulation Policy binder.

• CUNY Open Access Cards And Generic Barcodes
  Open Access Cards (Circulation Desk) with a generic (2 9999) barcode are to be issued to students who do not have a barcode from their home campus on their ID card and want to check out items from another CUNY library. The generic barcode should be issued with an expiration date of 10 days to allow patrons to return to their home campus library and be issued a permanent barcode. The generic barcode should never be placed on a regular college ID card.

If the patron's ID card is imprinted with a valid library barcode, staff at any library can enter them into the Aleph patron file. Expiration date must be current.
